

Fair Play

Questionnaire for CCF Cruise 2012

Jukka Klemola, OH6LI

based on material by Ed Muns, W0YK

based on material by CQ WW Contest Committee

Fair Play - Power

- 1. If I am using two antennas on 20M, either stacked or separate, can I run 1500 watts to each antenna from 2 separate amps?
  - A. No
  - B. Yes

Fair Play - Power

2. Can I allow for theoretical coaxial cable losses before the 1,500 watts arrives at my antenna?

A. Yes

B. No

Fair Play - Power

- 3. Do I have to take into account any presumed gain of my transmitter antenna when considering power allowed?
- A. No
  - B. Yes

Fair Play - Assistance

4. If any hardware or software stops working and someone other than the operator fixes it, does that place entrant in a multi-operator or assisted category?

- A. No
- B. Yes

Fair Play - Assistance

5. If I am assisted, can I receive logging help if I make all the contacts?

- A. No
- B. Yes

Fair Play - Assistance

6. Does using Skimmer place me in the assisted Category?

A. Yes

B. No

Fair Play - Assistance

7. If someone brings food or drinks, does that place a single operator in a multi-operator category or an assisted category?

- A. Yes
- B. No

Fair Play - Assistance

8. I will not spot myself but can I ask a third party to spot me?

- A. No
- B. Yes

Fair Play - Assistance

9. If I work a station and he spots me, am I in violation of the rule?

- A. No
- B. Yes

Fair Play - Multiop

10. Can the Multiplier station (MS) use a separate call to call CQ on a third band and move any new multipliers to the multiplier band?

- A. No
- B. Yes

Fair Play - Multiop

11. Can the Multi-single multiplier station call CQ?

- A. No
- B. Yes

Fair Play – Transmitter

12. Which category can have more than one signal on 15m band at the same time?

- A. Single Operator Assisted
- B. It is OK for all multi-categories
- C. Single Operator
- D. No category

Fair Play – Single Band

13. If I operate single band, for example, 40 meters, can I look for multipliers on a different band to help my 40 m band of entry?

- A. Yes
- B. No

Fair Play in CQ WW

14. If I am in the CW contest can I go up on SSB to try to find multipliers?

- A. No
- B. Yes

Fair Play in CQ WW

15. After the contest is finished, is it OK to use recordings, call sign data bases or other data bases to correct errors I may have made during the contest?

- A. No
- B. Yes

Fair Play in CQ WW

16. If someone's PC erases the QSO we had and they email me to retrieve our QSO data, I should:

- A. Reply with just the relevant QSO line from my log
- B. Not reply
- C. Tell them they are a disgrace to contesting
- D. Explain that post-contest, non-radio log changes are outside the rules

Fair Play in CQ WW

17. I will do my best to spread FAIR PLAY in contesting to my friends and Club.

A. Yes

B. Yes